

Casey Gold Director, Regulatory Affairs

Casey Gold is the Director of Regulatory Affairs for the Natural Gas Supply Association. She joined NGSA in 2014.

As Director, Casey assists in representing the membership's issues of interest and other policy matters at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC). In addition to monitoring and updating the association's members about significant FERC actions, Casey is responsible for preparing presentations and filings on behalf of the membership. Casey also works with the Executive Vice President to develop positions on emerging regulatory issues.

Prior to joining NGSA, Casey worked as a professional development and training coordinator for Kirkland & Ellis LLP. During Casey's time at Kirkland, she advised many of the internal committees by helping to draft and implement new initiatives. Her work also included organizing seminars and networking events, and overseeing professional training programs.

Casey Gold is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in Government & Politics.