NGSA Commends Senate on Confirmation of Heath Tarbert as CFTC Chairman

(Washington, D.C.) -- Jennifer Fordham, Senior Vice President of Government Affairs at the Natural Gas Supply Association, praised the Senate for its vote to confirm Heath Tarbert as Chairman of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

Fordham said:

“We commend the Senate for its vote to confirm Chairman Tarbert. We look forward to working with the new Chairman on issues impacting the natural gas industry such as end user protections and implementation of Dodd Frank.

“He brings a wealth of experience from his tenure at the Treasury Department, working to promote financial stability and address regulatory issues that facilitate growth. His understanding of the importance of investments in energy and infrastructure is important as well.”
